About Company

Amber Candles is a locally owned candle brand based in Durham, United Kingdom, specialising in hand-poured, high-quality scented candles. The company was founded with a strong focus on craftsmanship, sustainability, and community values. Each candle is carefully produced using premium wax blends and thoughtfully curated fragrances designed to create warm, calming, and inviting spaces.

The brand is deeply inspired by seasonal living and local culture. Amber Candles regularly introduces limited-edition collections that reflect the changing seasons, celebrations, and customer preferences. From autumnal spice blends to festive winter scents, the company prioritises creativity and attention to detail in every product launch. This seasonal approach has helped build a loyal customer base and strong brand recognition within the local market.

Sustainability is at the core of Amber Candles' operations. The company uses eco-friendly materials wherever possible, including recyclable packaging and responsibly sourced ingredients. By supporting ethical production practices and reducing environmental impact, Amber Candles aligns its business values with the growing consumer demand for sustainable and conscious brands.

In addition to online sales, Amber Candles actively engages with the local community through markets, pop-up events, and partnerships with Durham cafés, boutiques, and small businesses. This community-driven approach strengthens local relationships while enhancing brand visibility and trust. Social media plays a key role in this strategy, allowing the brand to share behind-the-scenes content, customer stories, and product launches in an authentic and engaging way.

Looking ahead, Amber Candles aims to expand its digital presence, grow its customer base across the UK, and continue developing innovative products while maintaining its commitment to quality, sustainability, and community engagement.

Executive Summary

Prepared by

Prepared for
Amber Candles, Durham, UK)

In Q3 2025, Amber Candles continued to strengthen its social media presence across all active platforms. The brand's focus on seasonal product storytelling, behind-the-scenes content, and meaningful engagement with the local community supported steady performance throughout the quarter. Content related to new product launches and visual storytelling helped maintain audience interest, while paid social activity supported both online visibility and in-store awareness. Overall, social media played a key role in supporting brand growth and customer engagement during this period.

Over the reporting period, Amber Candles saw steady progress across its social media channels, with paid campaigns delivering positive results and a solid return on investment.

The results from this period indicate that Amber Candles' social media strategy is well aligned with audience behaviour and brand positioning. Continued emphasis on lifestyle-focused content, seasonal relevance, and community connection has helped build a strong foundation for future campaigns. These insights provide clear direction for maintaining momentum and supporting further growth in the next reporting period.

10%

About 60% of followers are based in Durham, emphasizing our local market strength. An additional 20% are in nearby Newcastle, 10% in Sunderland, and 10% are spread across the UK. This regional breakdown confirms that while Amber Candles has a strong local foundation, there is also an online following across the country.

Active Times

Wednesday	6:00 PM – 9:00 PM
Friday	6:00 PM – 9:00 PM
Sunday	10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Engagement data shows peak activity on Wednesdays and Fridays from 6–9 PM, as well as Sunday mornings (10–12 PM). These time periods (when followers are most likely to be online) have become key opportunities for posting new content or promotions.

Engagement Metrics

Overall engagement climbed from 1,200 to 1,800 (a 50% increase) by mid-quarter, before a slight drop to 1,600 in the final week. Impressions followed a similar pattern, peaking at 18,000 in Week 3. The Week 3 spike indicates that content and timing (likely around the Autumn Glow launch) were particularly effective. Even the slight decline in Week 4 remained well above early-quarter levels, showing sustained audience interest rather than a complete drop-off.

Engagement and impressions reached their highest point in Week 3, suggesting the strongest content or campaign performance during this period.

A slight decline in Week 4 still remained above early-week levels, indicating sustained audience interest rather than a drop-off.

Targets

Objectives for the Next Period

The primary objective for the next period is to increase brand visibility and engagement while driving higher website traffic and conversions.

This will be achieved through seasonal campaigns, increased video content, and stronger local collaborations.

Followers	Engagements	Impressions	Website Traffic	Conversions
1,500	7,200	75,000	6,500	150

Next Quartal

- Holiday-themed campaigns: Plan targeted promotions and content around Christmas, New Year, and winter festivities.
- Local collaborations: Partner with Durham cafés, boutiques, and artisans to expand reach and create cross-promotional opportunities.
- Video & Reels: Increase production of short-form videos (Reels, TikToks) showcasing candle-making, seasonal scents, and gift ideas, as these have proven high engagement rates.

Strategies

CONTENT STRATEGY

Develop a holiday content calendar (e.g., Countdown to Christmas series, DIY gift ideas) to keep content timely and engaging.

Increase video content: Produce more candle-making tutorials and seasonal scent profile videos to captivate our audience.

Feature local stories: Highlight customer spotlights, community events, and user-generated content from our Durham community.

ENGAGEMENT STRATEGY

Host weekly Q&A sessions on Instagram Stories to answer follower questions and gather feedback.

Run holiday polls & contests (e.g., “Name Our Winter Candle”) to encourage audience participation and excitement.

Introduce a community hashtag (e.g., #AmberCandlesMoments) to encourage user sharing and brand-focused conversations.

ADVERTISING STRATEGY

Boost Christmas collection posts with targeted ads (focusing on Durham and surrounding areas) to increase visibility.

Retarget website visitors with special discount offers to convert interest into sales.

Collaborate with local influencers for inclusion in holiday gift guides and seasonal promotions.

PARTNERSHIPS

Partner with Durham cafés, hotels, and boutiques for cross-promotional displays and holiday events.

Collaborate with local artisans and makers for joint holiday market booths and gift bundles.

Engage with Durham-based lifestyle blogs and media for features on our holiday collections and community initiatives.

Conclusion

Amber Candles' social media growth in Q3 was driven by authentic storytelling, seasonal content, and strong visual media. Our audience is primarily local (Durham area) and female, with interests in home decor, wellness, and sustainable living.

The success of video posts and local community content suggests we should continue these approaches in Q4.

With a focused holiday strategy and continued community engagement, Q4 presents a significant opportunity to drive sales and deepen customer loyalty. We look forward to supporting Amber Candles in lighting up social media this holiday season.
